

ORANGE COUNTY
ORANGE to GREEN BUILDING FORUM

The purpose of the Green Building Forum is to provide stakeholders with information concerning green building standards and practices, and to obtain input in forming an Orange County Green Building Program. A variety of speakers will be discussing their experiences with green building. Additionally, there will be an inter-active dialogue and electronic polling throughout the forum to enable the audience to participate in the development of the County's Green Building Program.

Orange County Convention Center Going Green with New Solar Panels

Building Green In Orange County

GREEN BUILDING FORUM

Orange County Administration Center
201 South Rosalind Avenue, Orlando
County Commission Chambers

May 26, 2010, 8:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Join the Orange County Division of Building Safety as we take an in-depth look at the HOT TOPIC of Green Building. If you have an interest in residential or non-residential development, community revitalization, or green design, you don't want to miss this one!

- Opening Message from Mayor Richard T. Crotty
- Orange County - Orange to Green Programs
- Inter-Active Keypad Polling
- Sustainable Design
- Green Building Techniques
- Recycling of Construction Debris
- And Much More!

SEATING IS LIMITED - Please R.S.V.P. to GreenBuildingForum@ocfl.net before May 18, 2010

